1. Why do you want to pursue the International Baccalaureate Diploma?

2. To the best of your knowledge: Currently, what is your highest grade, what class is it in, and why are you doing well? What is your lowest grade, what class is it in, and why aren't you doing well?

3. Describe the process you use when writing a paper in English or History.

4. What is your weakest subject? What are you doing right now to improve your chances of success?

5. What are your extra-curricular activities?

6. Is procrastination a problem for you? If so, what techniques will you commit to using that will help with this problem?

7. The Diploma Program is a rigorous academic endeavor. Students are more successful when they can find a way to balance schoolwork, extra-curricular activities, and their social lives. How will you do this?

What world language and level are you currently in: _____

Have you taken Health? Yes No

Have you taken Art/Music? Yes No

City Honors IB DP Agreement

If I am accepted into the program, I understand, and acknowledge that, in addition to successfully completing six (6) required subject area courses, I am also responsible for these IB Diploma requirements:

- Participating regularly in CAS from September of junior year until March/April of senior year. (~150 hours of creativity, activity, service experiences) – this includes documentation, reflection while participating in experiences, and meeting each of the seven learning outcomes at least once.
 - Evidence of regular participation in all three strands (including documentation and reflections) must be completed by the end of May in junior year.
 - All experiences, evidence & reflections must be documented on the ManageBac website.
- Writing an Extended Essay of 3000-4000 words and meeting set deadlines:
 - turn in a substantial outline by the mid-September due date of senior year (date TBA)
 - turn in a final draft by the early to mid-November due date of senior year (date TBA)
 - turn in the final essay by the early to mid-January due date of senior year (date TBA)
- Successfully participating in the Theory of Knowledge course [offered in a one period ACE or BDF schedule over the two years of the program].

All information in this application is true to the best of my knowledge.

I will abide by the school's code of conduct and all IB policies (found on the City Honors School website).

I understand, and my parent/guardian does as well, that I can be transitioned from the IB Diploma Program at City Honors if I do not meet the above deadlines for CAS and the Extended Essay or if the IB DP Coordinator, the school counselor, and a school administrator believe it is in my best interest to be transitioned out of the program.

I also understand that submitting this application does not mean that I am accepted into the Diploma Program at City Honors School. I know that final admission is based on attendance and a determination that I can be successful in the program (as gauged by my grades during sophomore year).

By signing below, I agree to, and acknowledge that, I have read the above information:
