Hi Everyone,

Welcome to the 2022 CHS Ski Club. Unfortunately, we will NOT be able to provide bus service this year. Remember, anyone age 8 and up is welcome to purchase a pass. Please visit www.kbski.com for their COVID-19 Operational Plan: no personal belongings will be allowed to be left in the building.

The big change will be to our official "Club Hours." All students are to be under supervision by a club advisor for the duration of club hours (1 PM - 5 PM).

Laura Lester has gratuitously volunteered to be our Club Advisor. Please thank her every week; without her we would not be able to offer this opportunity to students.

New protocols for check in and check out are as follows:

1. Students must check in with an advisor in the KB Club Room on arrival. (Club room is located past the cafeteria in the main lodge, labeled "Club Room.")
2. An adult must be present to sign-out each student by 5 PM.

Please be sure to email me with information on persons who are authorized to pick up your child prior to January 9th.

*Wish for snow,
Maureen Chapman, ski club coordinator

Please note: Ski Rentals are run independently of the club and KB. Here are a few recommendations. Please contact them directly for your equipment rental needs. DON'T FORGET A HELMET!

1. Snowflake Ski Shop: snowflakekbrental@gmail.com . They are on location at KB, and can fix a problem if you have one there on the mountain. No need to haul gear is a bonus. They are offering seasonal rates for school clubs.
2. Glenwood Depot: <https://www.glenwooddepot.com/> They are located on the way to KB.
3. Colden Ski Shop: <https://coldenskiandboard.com/>. They are located on the way to KB.

The KB Ski Swap is a great place to find affordable new or used equipment. November 12th, 12-9pm.
November 13th, 10am-5pm. November 14th, 10am-4pm.
